SAVED HER DOG AT COST OF HER LIFE.

Mrs. G. A. Barker Rescued Her Pet From Street Car's Wheels and Was Fatally Hurt.

SHE LIVED ONLY FOUR HOURS.

Dead Woman Was a First Cousin of Governor Stephens—Accident Happened in Front of Her Home.

A pet dog was directly responsible for the death of Mrs. G. A. Barker of No. 363 Easton avenue, who was struck by a Chicago street car No. 122 about 10 o'clock yesterday morning, sustaining injuries to which she succumbed four hours later.

Mrs. Barker was the wife of G. A. Barker, a clerk at the Grand Central, and was a first cousin of Governor Len V. Stephens.

She was sweeping the pavement in front of her home, when the dog ran into the car track. An eastbound car was approaching at a rapid rate of speed, and Mrs. Barker believed her pet would be crushed to death. She rushed upon the tracks and tried to catch the dog. Just as she did so the car struck her, knocking her down and passing over her.

Her mangled body was dragged from under the car and taken to her home, only a few doors away, and Doctors Dalton and Farmer were summoned. The dog escaped without injury.

Mrs. Barker's body was terribly mutilated and the physicians saw at once that there was no chance to save her life. To relieve her pain, opiates were administered. After lingering about 2 o'clock, she passed away.

The informant of the car, George E. Clark, of the Evans avenue, was arrested and is held pending an investigation. William Gilliam of No. 359 Easton avenue was the conductor.

G. A. Barker, the husband, said last night that he had been told by neighbors that the car was running at an unusual rate of speed. He said that he did not see the accident himself, and had to rely for his information of it solely upon the statements of others.

T. C. Cunningham, a passenger on the car, said that the car was running at a rapid rate, and had left many passengers standing, because of the accident. It was a full time, and the motorist wanted to make it up.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been made. The body will be kept at relatives throughout the State, and until they can be heard from the arrangements will not be completed.

Mrs. Charles E. Stephens of Speed, Mo., a sister of the dead woman, arrived last night and will attend to the funeral arrangements.

B. R. T. Celebration.

Flora, Ill., Sept. 22.—The seventeenth anniversary of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen was celebrated in this city today. There were not less than 100 guests here. A grand street parade was given, representing the various divisions of the order. The procession was headed by one of the Robinson engines pulling a string of cars. Judge Phillips presided over the principal address. E. L. Collins, second grand master, was also here.

MINISTER'S FOOD.

Its Value Discovered During Absence of Family.

Reverend J. B. Ley, pastor of the First M. E. Church, South Tampa, Fla., had an interesting experience when his family were compelled to leave on account of the yellow fever. He says: "Last summer when we were visited by a yellow fever scare, my family left for an indefinite stay in the interior."

"I had, for about two years, been under considerable physical and mental strain, and my nervous system seemed to utterly give way. I had some excellent physicians, but their remedies failed to reach the cause, at best affording only temporary relief."

"At the time this family left my attention was called to Grape-Nuts food. Several times had I tried the new food, for it is made largely of wheat and is perfectly cooked and therefore requires no work on my part."

"So I began to make two meals a day, supper and breakfast, on Grape-Nuts and cream or milk, and nothing else. I confined myself to the proper allowance, not overeating. The improvement was marked, almost from the first. My digestion was better, sleep became regular and restful, and I began to gain flesh. I could now work with less fatigue and more satisfaction."

"My nervous system had been wonderfully improved, and to-day I weigh more than I have ever weighed, and find my strength equal to all the responsibilities. This is not all. On the return of the family Grape-Nuts became a regular article of food at the morning hour. The children ate it and improved. My wife, who was nursing an infant, discovered that after she began using Grape-Nuts regularly, for the first time in many years nature's food supply for the baby was adequate, without resorting to artificial substitutes. Grape-Nuts food not only carried us through the sickly season, but has been a godsend to our entire family."

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

New York, Sept. 22.—"I am seriously contemplating a call to the State Committee for a meeting to discuss some plan for preventing the use of the big money wrong from the treasury by the Republican campaign managers. I have reports from most trustworthy sources that these managers have raised the largest sum of money ever employed in New York State for the purpose of debauching voters and buying votes for the Republican national and State tickets," declared Chairman Frank Campbell in a speech before the State Committee to-day. Continuing, Mr. Campbell said:
"The reports submitted to the Republican State headquarters from the chairman of the various county committees during the last few days have been so discouraging and indicative of the trend of the election in this State, that the committee is toward Bryan, that the committee of the Republican campaign have been compelled, as a final resort, to depend upon bribery."

"It may be that, in order to make certain that this plan shall not succeed, we shall have no chance to carry this. To relieve her pain, opiates were administered. After lingering about 2 o'clock, she passed away."

The informant of the car, George E. Clark, of the Evans avenue, was arrested and is held pending an investigation. William Gilliam of No. 359 Easton avenue was the conductor.

G. A. Barker, the husband, said last night that he had been told by neighbors that the car was running at an unusual rate of speed. He said that he did not see the accident himself, and had to rely for his information of it solely upon the statements of others.

T. C. Cunningham, a passenger on the car, said that the car was running at a rapid rate, and had left many passengers standing, because of the accident. It was a full time, and the motorist wanted to make it up.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been made. The body will be kept at relacan be heard from the arrangements will not be completed.

Mrs. Charles E. Stephens of Speed, Mo., a sister of the dead woman, arrived last ments.

AMERICAN RAILROADS BEST.

International Railway Association Pays High Tribute to Them.

Paris, Sept. 22.—Many prominent American railroad men are here attending the session of the International Railway Association, which is now in session at the Grand Hotel, Paris. The association is composed of representatives of the great railroad systems of the world, and is the largest and most important of its kind.
The American members of the association are highly respected, and their contributions to the progress of the world's railroads are well known. The American railroads are the best in the world, and the American railroad men are the best in the world. The American railroad men are the best in the world, and the American railroads are the best in the world.

WANTS TAYLOR'S DEPOSITION.

Yontey Grant an Order to Secure Same Out of Kentucky.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 22.—On motion of T. J. Crawford, attorney for Henry Yontey Grant, Judge Crawford issued an order today, permitting the defense to take the deposition of Alexander W. Taylor, ex-secretary of State, Kentucky, and ex-governor of the State, to be taken at Georgetown in October.
